

Michole Briana White Returns Home: An Evening of Soulful Resonance at City Winery Chicago

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, July 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The vibrant soul of Chicago is set to embrace one of its own as acclaimed actress, vocalist, and songwriter, Michole Briana White, announces a highly anticipated performance at City Winery Chicago. On August 24, 2025, Michole will grace the stage in her beloved hometown, promising an evening where artistry, authenticity, and profound connection will intertwine.

From the dramatic depths of her roles on screen, including the formidable Lucille Flenory in STARZ's Black Mafia Family and memorable appearances in FX's Atlanta and Spike Lee's films (She Hate Me, 25th Hour), Michole Briana White has captivated audiences with her nuanced performances. Yet, beyond the camera's lens, a powerful vocal artistry has always resided within her, a voice that now seeks to stir the very heart of her city.

City Winery Chicago, known for its intimate ambiance and exceptional acoustics, provides the perfect canvas for Michole's return. This engagement is more than just a performance; it's a homecoming, a return to the roots that nurtured her remarkable journey. Expect an evening where the echoes of her celebrated acting career meet the raw, unvarnished beauty of her musical expression. It is a testament to her versatile talent and her ongoing commitment to healing and connection through art.

"To perform in Chicago, in the city that shaped me, is truly a full-circle moment," shares Michole Briana White. "There's an undeniable energy here, a rhythm that lives in my bones. I'm eager to share stories, melodies, and moments of pure, unbridled spirit with my people at City Winery."

Audiences are invited to witness the multifaceted artistry of Michole Briana White in an unforgettable setting. This is a rare opportunity to experience the depth of her creative spirit, as she weaves together narratives from a life lived authentically and a career marked by bold artistic choices.
