As the founder of Petruccelli, Ltd., Mike has spent years providing insurance products and risk management consulting services in Florida. His expertise covers a broad range of sectors, including risk management in the healthcare industry and the public sector, where he has successfully guided organizations in navigating complex risk-related challenges.

In his role as an instructor, Mike has previously taught at the Florida Risk Management Institute, specializing in essential topics that prepare students for careers in insurance and risk management. His commitment to education and professional development is evident in his active participation in various professional associations, including the Risk and Insurance Management Society (RIMS), the Public Risk and Insurance Management Association (PRIMA), and the National Association of Life Underwriters (NALU).

"We are honored to welcome Mike to the Insurance School of Tampa Bay," said Christopher Kazor, CAO (Chief Academic Officer). "His impressive background in insurance and risk management, along with his strong dedication to mentoring the next generation of professionals, makes him a perfect fit for our team."

Mike's areas of expertise include, but are not limited to:

- Americans with Disabilities Act Compliance
- Real Estate Syndication
- Sales Training and Development
- Human Resource Development
- Strategic Planning and Business Recovery

With this key addition to our faculty, the Insurance School of Tampa Bay reaffirms its commitment to providing high-quality education and preparing students for successful careers in the insurance and risk management industry.
