Every year, we see the incredible dedication of Louisiana's educators and families to student success, often stretching their budgets to provide essential supplies.”

Chad Dudley, managing partner at Dudley DeBosier Injury Lawyers

According to the United States Federal Credit Union, families with children in elementary through high school spent an average of $586 per child on back-to-school shopping, which does not include the cost of extracurricular activities.

“Every year, we see the incredible dedication of Louisiana's educators and families to student success, often stretching their budgets to provide essential supplies,” said managing partner Chad Dudley. “This giveaway represents our appreciation and desire to ease some of the financial pressure that comes with a new school year.”

Recipients can use their gift cards to purchase textbooks, school supplies, clothing, technology, or any other items necessary for academic preparation and success. Beyond the Back-to-School Gift Card Giveaway, Dudley DeBosier Injury Lawyers maintains an active role in community engagement through educational scholarships, partnerships with local organizations, and various charitable initiatives throughout Louisiana.
