/EINPresswire.com/ -- South Europe College, the MFHEA-accredited online higher education institution, today announced the launch of its new Master of Science \(M.Sc.\) in Digital Media and Marketing program. This innovative, fully online Master's degree offers students two distinct pathways to graduation: a Coursework Track for professionals seeking to enhance their practical skills, and a Research Track for those aiming to contribute to academic or industry knowledge through an in-depth dissertation.

The M.Sc. in Digital Media and Marketing is a 90-ECTS, MQF Level 7 degree, fully licensed by the Malta Further and Higher Education Authority (MFHEA) and aligned with the European Qualifications Framework (EQF). This program makes a high-level, fully recognized European Master's degree in a high-demand field accessible to working professionals everywhere.”

In keeping with the college's mission of accessibility, the program is offered at a highly competitive tuition rate.
