From the back cover:

Have you ever wondered where vampires came from, who they are, and why they do what they do? Did you know Dracula and Van Helsing are half-brothers? Were vampires on Earth before humans?

Take a journey from the beginning of time and meet the first vampires. On your journey, you will encounter lies, secrets, betrayal, murder, and devastating decisions. With vampires running amok, humanity's survival looks grim. Enter Virbelladon, an enormous predator fashioned to kill the vilest beasts that ever walked the Earth. With massive fangs, robust thumbs, spiked tails, and sharp claws, these sabretooth/dire wolves will help destroy these blood suckers in massive battles.

However, vampires are not the only threat humanity faces. There is a witch among them. In the beginning, Neveah is only a conduit for evil power. Later, she finds a way to harness power of her own, making her the world's first sorceress. With power, speed and agility, a vampire called Azazel teams up with Neveah seeking to overthrow humanity and take over the world. Will they succeed, or will Azazel's son end their reign of terror?
