

Ticki Favaroth to Deliver Keynote Address on 'The Unbreakable Bond' at 2025 Blackbone Project Summit in Washington, D.C.

WASHINGTON D.C., MD, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- On Saturday, July 27, 2025, over 1,000 Black women will gather at Sycamore & Oak (1110 Oak Drive SE, Washington, D.C. 20032) for a powerful, day-long experience at the 2025 Blackbone Project Summit, where the message is clear: Sisterhood is strength.

Ticki Favaroth

At the heart of this free event is keynote speaker Ticki Favaroth, Senior Partner & Managing Director at HR&Co., President of BOW Enterprises, and Vice President & COO of The BOW Collective, a network of more than 300 Black women CEOs generating over $1.7 billion in annual revenue.

Sisterhood is not a feel-good concept—it’s a growth strategy”

Ticki Favaroth

Favaroth will headline with her keynote address: “The Unbreakable Bond: Sisterhood as a Catalyst for Entrepreneurial Success.” She will draw from her deeply personal and professional journey to illustrate how cultivating resilient, intentional sister circles has transformed her career, expanded her reach, and allowed her to confront challenges with faith and fortitude.

“Sisterhood is not a feel-good concept—it’s a growth strategy,” says Favaroth. “When we lock arms, we lift legacies. We build not just businesses, but communities.”

In addition to her executive leadership roles, Favaroth is the author of the transformative new book, Anchored in Grace, a spiritual guide for women navigating high-stakes careers while staying rooted in their divine calling. The book positions her as a modern-day sage—blending faith, strategy, and leadership in every message she shares.

The Blackbone Project Summit is designed to uplift and equip Black women entrepreneurs, professionals, and change agents through workshops, panels, and curated networking moments. This year's theme—"Leveraging the Power of Sisterhood"—is amplified by Favaro's keynote and commitment to legacy leadership.

Attendees can expect a transformative day of insight, inspiration, and intentional connection—all at no cost to the public.
