Houston Law Firm Offers $200 Gift Cards for Back-to-School Shopping

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, July 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Terry Bryant Accident & Injury Law, with the return of its popular Back-to-School Gift Card Giveaway, is once again stepping up to support Texas families as they prepare for the new school year. The Houston-based law firm is offering ten $200 gift cards to help alleviate the financial strain during what many families consider one of the costliest times of the year.

Terry Bryant Injury Lawyers Back to School Giveaway

According to the United States Federal Credit Union, families with children in elementary through high school spent an average of $586 per child on back-to-school shopping, which does not include the cost of extracurricular activities.

This giveaway is our way of supporting our community and helping ensure that local students have access to the supplies they need for academic success”

Terry Bryant, founder, Terry Bryant Accident & Injury Law

“Every year, we see firsthand how back-to-school expenses can create financial stress for Texas families,” said Terry Bryant, founder of the law firm. “Back-to-school shopping is often the second largest spending period for families after the holiday season. This giveaway is our way of supporting our community and helping ensure that local students have access to the supplies they need for academic success.”

Texas families with students at any grade level are encouraged to participate in this opportunity to win one of ten $200 gift cards.
