Making a Difference Through Community Engagement

For the Anundis, giving back is more than a business strategy—it's a core value. The Capital Pawn team has launched initiatives that combine creativity, collaboration, and generosity to positively impact lives across the Willamette Valley.

While Capital Pawn is known for frequently supporting local organizations, one standout effort is Sip & Shop, the company's signature annual event. What began as a small after-hours shopping experience has grown into "A Night of Luxury"—a multi-location celebration blending fashion, community, and philanthropy. A portion of the proceeds supports Michelle's Love, a nonprofit that provides financial and emotional assistance to single parents battling cancer.

"These events bring our community together for a cause," Adam said. "We believe business can be a force for good."

Leadership Beyond the Showroom

Beth and Adam are also recognized leaders in the pawn industry. They are frequent speakers at national and regional conferences, sharing insights on leadership, ethics, and community engagement. Beth's service includes serving as President, Oregon

Pawnbrokers Association, Director, National Pawnbrokers Association, Numerous committee and leadership roles within the industry, and recognition as the NPA Pawnbroker of the Year in 2019.
