Lara Trump continues to build momentum in her music career, following her Billboard Top 10 debut in 2023 with her rendition of "I Won't Back Down", which climbed to #10 on the Billboard Digital Song Sales Chart. That milestone established her as a credible voice in patriotic and inspirational pop music, and as a rising artist with a growing national audience.

L.J. Fino, President of First Class Label Group, said:

"We're curating a powerful, diverse roster that speaks to global audiences. Lara's voice has connected with millions, and GIMS brings an international legacy that complements our mission. We're pushing boundaries."

In addition to Trump's growing profile, First Class Label Group is proud to announce an exclusive North American collaboration with French-Congolese superstar GIMS, one of the most prominent international artists of this generation. With over 6 billion streams and 7 million albums sold worldwide, GIMS is preparing to launch a series of new English-language releases and U.S. tour dates beginning Q4 2025, marking his first major U.S. push.

Raphew Reed Jr., FCLG Executive Vice President & Executive Producer, commented:

“Lara Trump reaching the Billboard Top 10 was just the beginning. With the GIMS collaboration, we are building a cross-continental powerhouse of culture, creativity, and conviction.”
