

Forbes Details She Is The Music's Showcase Series with Anzie Blue and FEMco

Nashville's Anzie Blue is set to host the monthly series highlighting rising female artists.

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, July 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- She Is The Music — the non-profit dedicated to empowering women in the music industry — joined forces with Leslie Fram's FEMco and Marcie Allen's Anzie Blue venue to create a monthly Nashville showcase spotlighting emerging female artists, Forbes revealed Wednesday (July 23).

The announcement follows the first show of the series. The sold-out July 16 event featured Maggie Rose, Stella Prince, Summer Joy, Mary Marguerite, Sinclair, and Jillian Jacqueline.

Jody Gerson, who co-founded She Is The Music with Alicia Keys, Ann Mincieli and Samantha Kirby Yoh, told Forbes that "there are so many talented women in Nashville; artists and songwriters deserving of a break and recognition." She added that the series will include panels and workshops for aspiring executives in addition to concerts.

concert showcase on August 27, which will feature Brittney Spencer and several other rising stars.

"She Is The Music and what Marcie has been doing at AB, what I did at CMT and what I'm doing with FEMco, I think it just reinforces our mission to combat gender discrimination, to try to create equitable opportunities for female artists," Leslie Fram explained to Forbes.

At future events, Fram added, you can also keep your eyes open for potential special guests.

About She Is The Music

She Is The Music is a nonprofit organization founded by Alicia Keys, Jody Gerson, Ann Mincieli and Sam Kirby Yoh to increase the number of women working in music – songwriters, engineers, producers, artists and industry professionals. Programs include global all-women songwriting sessions, mentorship and education programs, and the largest industry database of women creators and executives.
