About NAEBA:

The National Association of Exclusive Buyer Agents (NAEBA) is dedicated to promoting the interests of homebuyers. NAEBA members provide the highest level of real estate representation in the industry. Exclusive Buyer Agents represent buyers only, providing expert guidance to each client and ensuring they receive the highest level of service and representation throughout the homebuying process.

Consumer advocates created NAEBA in the mid-1990s to provide homebuyers with access to a better type of real estate agent, just for them. NAEBA members do not accept listings or represent sellers, avoiding the conflicts of interest common at traditional real estate companies that attempt to represent both buyers and sellers in the same transaction. EBAs are 100 percent loyal to home buyers 100 percent of the time.

You can find a NAEBA member around the country at <https://naeba.org>
