NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Concierge Auctions announced today that an exceptionally crafted mountain compound in Bend, Oregon, is pending sale for US$5.38 million following 44 days of auction marketing. Boasting panoramic, 360-degree views – including seven snow-capped mountains of the Cascade Mountain range – the property sold successfully at auction in cooperation with Jen Bowen of Coldwell Banker Bain.

“The strong market response and swift transaction we experienced underscores the demand for truly special, luxury estates, like this one in picturesque Bend,” said Carolyn Wright, VP of Business Development at Concierge Auctions. “We’re proud to have facilitated an accelerated, seamless sales process that maximized both reach and results.”

The private gated estate offers the ultimate blend of luxury and nature. The 6,321-square-foot main residence features five ensuite bedrooms and six bathrooms, complemented by detached guest pods. Outdoor highlights include a poolhouse with his-and-hers facilities and entertainment pavilion with pizza oven, fire pit, and bar seating. The property borders thousands of acres of BLM land on two sides, ensuring peace and privacy.

Ideal for car or art collectors, the estate includes a 10,000 square foot climate-controlled shop for 20+ vehicles. A 2,100 square foot recreation center overlooks a one-acre stocked pond, with a full-size sand volleyball court and shooting range nearby. Gardeners will enjoy a lavender field, automated greenhouse, and fenced pastures.

Designed by Mussa & Associates and built by local craftsmen, the home includes radiant floor heating, expansive windows with mountain views, touchless pocket doors in the primary suite, and a 40 kW Tesla solar system with battery backup. All structures feature fireproof cement or metal siding. Metal roofs offer durability and easy maintenance. Though connected to the grid, the estate can run fully off-grid.
