ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, July 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tebarco Mechanical, a leading full-service mechanical solutions provider serving the Atlanta metro area, has launched a fully integrated new website, marking the next phase of its growth under the Modigent brand.

Since completing its brand transition in 2024, Tebarco Mechanical has continued to expand its service offerings and talent pipeline, aligning with Atlanta's position as one of the fastest-growing U.S. markets for commercial development and infrastructure investment.

“Tebarco's integration with Modigent has enhanced how we serve clients while staying true to our core values of quality, safety, and craftsmanship,” said Corey Pitts, Tebarco's General Manager. “Our new website helps communicate that—showing clients, partners, and future team members exactly who we are today.”

The redesigned website highlights Tebarco's full capabilities, including:

- HVAC, plumbing, and design-build services
- In-house engineering and site evaluation

□ Advanced digital construction technology through Bimble, including 3D laser scanning and robotic layout

□ Comprehensive maintenance, analytics, and 24/7 service

The site also emphasizes career opportunities. As Atlanta's commercial market grows, the need for skilled trades talent continues to rise. Tebarco Mechanical's focus on workforce development and training remains a core priority. Atlanta's 11Alive News recently highlighted this commitment, featuring Tebarco technician, Blake Blume, who shared his skilled trades career journey—a real example of the opportunities available within the organization.
