"The Apothecary Diaries Palace Chronicles" Simulation Game Pre-Registration Begins on G123

MINATO-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN, July 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SCTW Inc. has announced that pre-registration is now open for its upcoming browser-based simulation game, The Apothecary Diaries Palace Chronicles, available via the HTML5 gaming platform G123.

□ Simulation Game Inspired by Popular Anime Series

The Apothecary Diaries Palace Chronicles is a simulation title based on the anime The Apothecary Diaries, which recently concluded its second season. The game allows players to follow the story of Maomao, a skilled apothecary navigating the complex dynamics of palace life and the surrounding pleasure district.

Accessible directly through web browsers without the need for installation, the game is compatible with smartphones, tablets, and PCs. Characters such as Jinshi and Gyokuyou, among others, are rendered with detailed illustrations faithful to the anime's atmosphere.

□ Gameplay Overview

The TV anime "The Apothecary Diaries" now has its own simulation game!

Train Maomao and Solve Palace Mysteries!

In the game, Maomao advances through the palace hierarchy by completing missions and resolving unusual cases. Players can deepen relationships with key characters and engage in collaborative gameplay systems involving medicine creation and resource gathering.

This title aims to capture the intrigue and character-driven storytelling that fans of the original anime have come to appreciate.

□ About the TV Anime "The Apothecary Diaries"

INTRODUCTION

Set in the imperial rear palace, this mystery-solving story follows a sharp-witted "food taster". A bestselling palace drama mystery with over 40 million copies sold.

STORY

In a grand empire at the center of the continent lies the rear palace—home to the emperor's consorts. There, a girl named Maomao works as a lowly maid. Once an apothecary in the pleasure district, Maomao learns the emperor's children are mysteriously short-lived. Driven by curiosity, she investigates the cause—believing curses don't exist.

Jinshi, a stunningly beautiful eunuch, appoints her as food taster to the emperor's favored consort. With an obsessive love for poisons and medicine, Maomao gets caught in palace rumors and incidents. Despite being constantly burdened by Jinshi, she takes on each task with wit and resolve. Thus, the poison-loving apothecary roams the rear palace once more today.
