Lucidly Launches A New Platform to Redefine Website Proofing and Collaboration

Lucidly, a new platform for visual review and collaboration, is launching to streamline how creative agencies and freelancers review websites.

AKRON, OH, UNITED STATES, July 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lucidly today announced the official launch of its all-in-one visual feedback and task collaboration platform designed for agencies, freelancers, and product teams working on web projects. The new platform streamlines website proofing and quality assurance workflows by combining visual commenting with built-in task tracking.

> Lucidly is the truly the perfect platform for website QA! It brings all the essential features together in one place. Since switching to Lucidly, my website QA process is super smooth. 100% recommend!"

Lucidly offers users a unified space to leave visual comments directly on live websites and manage those comments as actionable tasks in real time. This allows teams to collaborate more efficiently, stay organized, and reduce the need for separate project management tools.

Key platform features include:

Collaborator Flexibility - All plans support unlimited team and client collaborators with no additional user fees, reducing friction for growing teams.

Agency-Centered Design - Built specifically for creative and technical service providers, Lucidly emphasizes speed, usability, and focused functionality without unnecessary complexity.

User-Friendly Interface - A clean and intuitive layout ensures clients and stakeholders can participate in reviews without technical experience or onboarding time.

Reliable Support and Responsiveness - The Lucidly team resolves over 99% of reported issues within 24-72 hours and regularly incorporates customer feedback into product updates.

Simple, Transparent Pricing - Monthly plans begin at $9, with higher tiers offering expanded capabilities at competitive rates.

Lucidly aims to serve as a practical solution for teams seeking a focused, affordable way to manage web feedback cycles without relying on multiple disconnected tools. The platform is now available to new users, with a 10-day free trial and optional lifetime access packages currently being offered.
