Through this partnership, employees will gain access to exclusive tuition savings and career-relevant education benefits at UAGC. The initiative underscores both organizations' shared commitment to supporting working adults with benefits that drive personal and professional growth.

BenefitHub shares our commitment to improving lives through accessible, relevant benefits. We're making it easier for employees to take that next step in their educational and professional journey.”

Rachel Servi, senior corporate account executive at UAGC

“This partnership is about more than visibility, it's about impact,” said Rachel Servi, senior corporate account executive at UAGC. “BenefitHub shares our commitment to improving lives through accessible, relevant benefits. Together, we're making it easier for employees to take that next step in their educational and professional journey.”

By joining BenefitHub's platform, UAGC significantly increases its reach among top employers who see education as a strategic investment in talent development, retention, and workforce resilience. This partnership enhances UAGC efforts to meet learners where they are, at work, at home, and online, with programs that align with real-world workforce demands.

“As workforce expectations continue to evolve, partnerships like this help bridge the gap between talent potential and opportunity,” added Servi. “We're proud to partner with BenefitHub to expand educational access on a global scale.”
