In addition to these new cities and routes, the airline also announced a new boarding enhancement, BreezeBy, for Guests who want to conveniently skip the line and board first. BreezeBy is now included as part of the Nicest fare bundle or can be purchased a la carte and applies to all Guests on the itinerary. With the addition of BreezeBy to Nicest, the airline's signature bundle now includes a first-class seat, one carry-on bag, two checked bags, inflight WiFi, and complimentary snacks and beverages, including alcohol.

"BreezeBy is yet another way Breeze is giving our Guests the ability to 'create their own adventure' by crafting an experience that fits their unique travel needs and desires," Neeleman said. "Breeze is continuing to find ways to enhance air travel through the addition of add-on products and services that we know our Guests want and this customizable approach is definitely resonating and creating true Breeze brand fans."

Breeze was recently named one of Fast Company's World's Most Innovative companies of 2025 for its fresh take on affordable flying that is transforming low-cost air travel into a nice experience. It was also named the No. 3 Best Domestic Airline by Travel + Leisure in 2025, placing Breeze in the list's top four every year since it began flying.

The airline's flexible network conveniently connects travelers in underserved cities directly to desirable destinations nationwide, reducing unnecessary travel time and making air travel more accessible to millions of travelers coast to coast. Coupled with its brand-new fleet of Airbus A220-300 aircraft and premium products like free family seating, fast onboard WiFi, preferred seat options, and no change and cancel fees, Breeze is making it nice to fly affordably.
