

VETCOMM US Supports American Legion Baseball Tournament; CEO Kate Monroe Throws Out First Pitch

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, July 29, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In a proud show of support for veterans and youth, VETCOMM US has donated $2,000 to sponsor the California American Legion Baseball Tournament, reinforcing its commitment to community, tradition and the mission of veteran advocacy. The event was held under the leadership of California American Legion Department Commander David Brambilla, who personally invited VETCOMM US CEO and U.S. Marine Corps veteran Kate Monroe to throw out the ceremonial first pitch.

Monroe, a national figure in veteran advocacy and the driving force behind VETCOMM US—a leading company that helps veterans receive the benefits they earned—stepped onto the mound to launch the tournament with purpose and patriotism.

"We hope to help the Legion help more veterans—and our mission aligns perfectly with theirs. VETCOMM US is proud to be a BE THE ONE company dedicated to stopping veteran suicide," Monroe said.

The BE THE ONE initiative, championed by the American Legion and supported by VETCOMM US, encourages Americans to take action—be the one to ask, listen, reach out and support veterans in crisis.

American Legion baseball, a long-standing tradition in American communities, is more than just a game—it's about discipline, leadership and service. Through its donation and presence at the tournament, VETCOMM US continues to bridge the gap between generations of veterans, their families and the communities that support them.
