

Savant Labs Wins Gold Stevie® Award for Technical Innovation of the Year

Agentic AI analytics platform honored for transforming enterprise analytics with industry-first AI innovation

SAN MATEO, CA, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Savant Labs, the leader in AI-powered analytics automation, today announced that its Agentic AI analytics platform has been named a Gold Stevie® Award winner in the “Technical Innovation of the Year” category of the 2025 Stevie® Awards for Technology Excellence program. The win highlights Savant’s breakthrough approach to empowering enterprises to automate all analytics workflows, from simple to complex, and operationalize AI at scale with its cloud-based, no code platform.

The Stevie® Awards for Technology Excellence, now in their second year, recognize the world’s most innovative technologies and teams across industries. More than 1,500 nominations from organizations across 36 nations and territories were submitted for this year’s awards, with winners selected by an international panel of more than 160 expert judges.

This recognition speaks to the innovation that truly sets Savant apart. We’re helping businesses think, move, and operate faster.”
