ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, July 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Independent RnB Soul Artist Doc D'Ante releases his debut single "BAE". The single explores themes of relationship, love and emotional onset of a ghosting partner. This single marks the step of his artistic evolution and promises to captivate fans with his emotional lyrics.

Founding member of the R&B group 'After Dark RnB Soul', Doc D'Ante is known for his soulful vocals and introspective songwriting style, is steadily gaining momentum on the indie music and international scene.

"BAE" is his first release since the release of 'After Dark's single 'Pics On The Phone '. "BAE" lyrics is real and it speaks to someone who is dating and feeling a sense of remorse," said Doc. "It reflects the moments of when you are in love with someone and they ghost you, the feeling of heartbreak digs deep into your emotions." he stated.

"BAE" is produced by David Breed, Doc D'Ante and Josh 'JK' King. "BAE" features Florida native artist Big Popa. This song resonates with listeners across genres, blending elements of RnB, Soul and Hip-Hop soundscapes. "BAE" is available on all major streaming platforms namely Spotify, Apple Music and Amazon Music.

"I wrote BAE while driving my truck on the highway, when the idea of relationship ghosting came to me, then I knew it was going to be my first single. After I recorded it then I asked my cousin Big Popa, a Florida based artist to feature on the record." Doc said. Fans can also look forward to
