Convenience, Customization, and Control

With the app, users can schedule lighting scenes in advance and operate multiple lighting zones with a few taps. It supports remote access, making it practical for users to control their permanent lighting even when they're away from home. This technological upgrade reflects a broader trend in modern home design—offering homeowners innovative tools that enhance both aesthetics and functionality through smart technology integration.

A Word from the Owner

"We're excited to offer an app that makes managing permanent lighting easier, more customizable and accessible—whether you're at home or on the go," said Clark Peterson, Co-Owner of Lavish Lifestyle.
