

Tom Renfro's A SAAB STORY AND THE FOUR FREEDOMS: An Adventure of Resilience and True Freedom

A Thrilling Journey Through Mexico and a Guide to Personal Liberation

CA, UNITED STATES, July 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Author and retired educator Tom Renfro, in collaboration with Atticus Publishing, presents his latest book, A SAAB STORY AND THE FOUR FREEDOMS—a thrilling and thought-provoking two-part narrative that seamlessly blends adventure with profound insights on personal freedom.

An Unforgettable Journey Through Mexico

In A SAAB Story, Renfro takes readers on a riveting journey, recounting a real-life adventure he and his childhood friend, Roman, embarked on in their early 20s. With nothing but a 1977 Swedish SAAB 99E, the duo ventured into the wilds of Mexico, facing unexpected trials, mechanical breakdowns, and cultural surprises along the way. Their quest to bring themselves and the car back to New Mexico is filled with humor, struggle, and a twist ending that will leave readers astonished.

A Quest for True Freedom

The second story, The Four Freedoms, follows a 17-year-old college student on a transformative hitchhiking journey from Keene, New Hampshire, to Albuquerque. Along the way, he discovers the essence of the Four Freedoms—principles that he later reconnects with in retirement. Renfro masterfully illustrates that true freedom is an internal journey, and once embraced, it remains unshakable.
