The Ambassadors received their training credentials from the Global Civility Leadership Institute at a ceremony held at the Trademark Hotel in Nairobi, Kenya.

These individuals have dedicated their careers to promoting civility and its many components, and their certification as a World Civility Ambassador further solidifies their commitment to this cause. With extensive knowledge and experience, they are each well-equipped to educate and inspire individuals and organizations to embrace civility in all aspects of life.

As certified World Civility Ambassadors, each one is available to present and conduct workshops on civility matters. They offer practical strategies and tools to help individuals and organizations cultivate a culture of civility, respect, and understanding. Their engaging and informative sessions have been well-received by audiences worldwide, and they are eager to continue spreading the message of civility. Collectively, they have hosted events and workshops in many countries and have recommended many people globally for awards based on their humanitarian efforts.

Following the presentation of their credentials, the honorees expressed gratitude for the opportunity to become certified World Civility

Ambassadors and Civility Spokespersons. They acknowledged the responsibility of promoting civility globally. The certification cycle is two years with continuing education, speaking engagements, and training requirements for renewal.

The Global Civility Leadership Institute is preparing quality individuals to meet the relationship challenges of the future. We welcome these individuals to the front line.”

Dr. Ruben West, ICN Senior Global Civility Consultant

The Global Civility Leadership Institute seeks to promote global understanding, cultivate civility, and offer training programs that foster respectful dialogue and effective communication. The institute’s objectives include defining civility, exploring cultural differences, developing effective dialogue skills, and establishing safe spaces for open discussions. Additionally, the institute seeks to encourage active listening, empathy, collaboration, conflict resolution, and reconciliation. By achieving these objectives, participants will develop increased empathy, improved communication skills, and enhanced global citizenship, ultimately becoming ambassadors for civility and promoting a culture of respect, inclusivity, and constructive dialogue.

The Global Civility Leadership Institute was created to address the need for greater civility, empathy, and understanding in personal and public interactions by providing a platform for education, training, and community-building that fosters a culture of respect, inclusivity, and constructive dialogue.
