A Better Way to Divorce — Without the Battle

The Divorce With Dignity model is built on a simple belief: divorce doesn't have to destroy families or finances. For over two decades, the DWDN has empowered professionals across the country — from attorneys to LDAs to mediators — to offer holistic, human-centered divorce services that reduce stress and preserve dignity.

As part of this mission, Debbie Main now offers a full suite of affordable, flat-fee services including:

- Divorce and legal separation document preparation
- Marital settlement agreements (MSAs)

“

Clients tell me they feel safe with me — that I explain things in a way that finally makes sense,” Debbie said. “I want them to feel seen, heard, and in control.”

Debbie Main, LDA

- Parenting plans and co-parenting updates
- Uncontested divorce filings
- Assistance with mediation-ready paperwork
- Divorce coaching and process education

Whether clients are seeking a friendly separation or dealing with complex custody or financial concerns, Debbie's calm and capable presence makes the journey easier to navigate.

“Clients tell me they feel safe with me — that I explain things in a way that finally makes sense,” Debbie said. “I want them to feel seen, heard, and in control.”

From Legal Professional to Trusted Guide

With a background in legal office management and over 20 years of administrative legal experience, Debbie is deeply familiar with family law processes and the pain points clients face. But what sets her apart is her lived experience — she knows the emotional and logistical toll that divorce and co-parenting transitions can take. That empathy informs every client interaction.

“I've been through my own divorce and understand how hard it is to juggle paperwork, court forms, and parenting all at once. I became an LDA to help others avoid the chaos I went through. With Divorce With Dignity, I can offer a much-needed alternative for people who don't want to fight — they just want to move forward.”

Debbie Main, LDA - Divorce With Dignity - Placer and Sacramento

Debbie is legally registered and bonded as a Legal Document Assistant in Placer and Sacramento Counties, and she maintains a sharp commitment to professional standards and continuing education.

A Local Partner with National Backing

By joining the Divorce With Dignity Network, Debbie gains access to national training, tools, and peer support — but keeps her practice rooted in local relationships and personal service.

“We’re proud to welcome Debbie to the network,” said Cindy Elwell, Founder and CEO of Divorce With Dignity Network. “She brings the perfect blend of warmth, professionalism, and integrity. Her calm approach and deep knowledge of the legal process will make a real difference for families in the Sacramento and Placer regions.”

Unlike online form mills or legal startup kits, Divorce With Dignity providers offer real human connection backed by real legal knowledge. Clients aren’t left alone to figure it out — they have someone who listens, guides, and walks with them from start to finish.

Helping Families Stay Out of Court

For many families, going to court isn’t just expensive — it’s traumatic. And in California, court wait times and procedural confusion often make things worse. Debbie helps clients avoid all of that by handling:

- Step-by-step form completion
- State-specific filing procedures
- Clear timelines and document checklists
- Coordination with mediators, if needed
- Final agreements that align with both legal and family goals

She also supports co-parents with modifications and updates — including parenting plan revisions, holiday schedules, and communication protocols that reduce friction.

“Some of my clients are already divorced but need help making new agreements,” Debbie explained. “Life changes, and families need tools that can change with them.”

Common Client Profiles

Debbie works with a wide range of clients — from professionals and retirees to single parents and self-represented spouses. Most fall into one of these categories:

- Spouses seeking a low-conflict, low-cost divorce
- Parents who want to co-create a peaceful co-parenting plan
- Individuals needing help understanding California family law forms
- Those exploring mediation or self-representation but unsure how to begin
- People burned by attorney battles, now looking for a simpler solution

And in every case, Debbie offers an affordable, non-adversarial path forward.
