SHILP.ai, the AI-powered Human Capital Management (HCM) platform developed by Global Data Solutions Inc., today announced the U.S. launch of RecruitPro with AI, its intelligent hiring solution, alongside AI for RecruitPro, an enterprise add-on module. This launch underscores SHILP.ai's commitment to advancing responsible AI in workplace applications, aligning with principles outlined in national initiatives such as "Winning the Race: America's AI Action Plan" and relevant federal guidance on safe, secure, and trustworthy AI development.

With over 18 years of experience in staffing solutions and a leadership team bringing a combined 63 years of expertise in AI, HR, and IT, SHILP.ai introduces tools designed to help organizations improve recruitment efficiency while supporting transparency, fairness, and regulatory compliance.

SHILP.ai: Supporting Workforce Innovation in Virginia

This launch represents a milestone for Virginia's technology ecosystem. SHILP.ai delivers AI-powered recruitment tools intended to help employers enhance hiring processes and broaden access to opportunities for job seekers.

As a Virginia-based small business, Global Data Solutions Inc. has participated in the Scaling4Growth program, sponsored by the Virginia Department of Small Business and Supplier Diversity (SBSD). This initiative has strengthened SHILP.ai's capacity for sustainable growth and aligns with the state's vision for fostering resilient, high-impact enterprises.

SHILP.ai's platform is designed to help streamline recruitment workflows, support more inclusive hiring practices, and provide employers with tools for informed decision-making. For job seekers, it offers AI-assisted job matching, resume analysis, and improved access to potential opportunities.

RecruitPro with AI and AI for RecruitPro are designed to assist organizations in modernizing their hiring processes, improving efficiency, and supporting efforts to build diverse teams," said Rao Morampudi, CEO and CTO of Global Data Solutions Inc. "Our focus remains on delivering solutions where transparency, compliance, and responsible AI practices guide every recruitment decision."
