

Introducing The Cor Collective: Where Leaders Go to Build the Future

Official Launch of a New Professional Network Redefining Growth, Strategy, and Legacy

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A new era of leadership has arrived with the official launch of The Cor Collective, a professional networking group designed for visionaries who lead with intention. Built at the intersection of authenticity and strategy, The Cor Collective is where bold ideas meet purposeful action—and where modern leaders come to challenge convention and shape what comes next.

More than just a networking group, The Cor Collective is a movement—uniting business owners, executives, and creatives through:

- Curated Business Consulting Services tailored to your goals
- Collaborative Mastermind Access with aligned, driven leaders
- A Relationship-Driven Approach rooted in mutual respect, value, and authenticity

Leading the charge is Robin Dimond, CEO and Founder of The Cor Collective and Fifth & Cor. With over 20 years of experience in branding, marketing, and innovation, Robin has worked across both corporate and entrepreneurial landscapes. She founded The Cor Collective to bring together high-level leaders, eliminate gatekeeping, and drive real business growth. Robin leads with strategy, bold thinking, and a deep understanding of what moves brands forward. Based in Florida, she's focused on helping others scale through clarity, connection, and execution.

"At The Cor Collective, we believe the most powerful growth starts from within," said Robin Dimond, CEO and Founder of The Cor Collective. "We've created a space that supports not just business expansion, but legacy-building—a space where heart-centered leadership is valued as much as vision and strategy."

Joining her is Ninette Caneda, Co-Founder and Chief Revenue Officer of The Cor Collective, a space she wanted for founders and executives to grow through ease, trust, and real business connections. With deep expertise in operations, client development, and sales strategy, Ninette is passionate about driving innovation across the legal support industry.

The organization is committed to elevating individuals who are building something bigger than themselves—those who are redefining what it means to lead in today's world.

Tagline: Where Leaders Go to Build the Future. Where Bold Ideas Meet Strategic Action.

Whether you're scaling a company, navigating reinvention, or stepping into your next chapter, The Cor Collective is here to guide, challenge, and grow with you.
