paranormal fans across the globe. New Dominion's fan favorite programming will be featured across PANIC TV's English and Spanish language FAST and AVOD channels, with additional dubbed versions launching in other territories later this year.

Under this agreement, Cape May Studios will distribute several seasons of A Haunting - the cult classic paranormal series that pioneered cinematic re-creations of true supernatural encounters as well as the fan-favorite investigative series Monsters and Mysteries in America, which explores chilling legends and unexplained phenomena across the United States. The titles will be made available as part of PANIC TV's premium genre slate, designed to captivate millennial and Gen Z audiences with a taste for the uncanny.

“New Dominion has built one of the most iconic catalogs in paranormal television, and we are thrilled to bring these stories to a new generation of global viewers,” said Sachin Gokhale, Founder & CEO of Cape May Studios. “These aren’t just shows - they’re cultural touchstones that helped define a genre. We’re excited to reintroduce them to audiences worldwide in multiple languages, with the reverence and reach they deserve.”

“We are excited to partner with Cape May Studios and their fast-growing PANIC TV platform,” said Kristen Eppley, EVP, Distribution at New Dominion Pictures. “Their editorial vision, global strategy, and commitment to genre storytelling make them an ideal home for our library. We look forward to seeing our content thrill and inspire new viewers across borders and platforms.”

The partnership continues Cape May Studios’ momentum as it expands its global streaming footprint with horror, thriller, and mystery programming curated for modern audiences. PANIC TV is now available as a FAST and AVOD channel globally across North America, Latin America, UK & Europe, MENA, Africa, India & Asia on over 15 platforms including Sling, Xiaomi TV+, Jio TV, Anoki Live TVx, Starz On etc. with further launches slated for Q3 and Q4 2025.
