Whether it's a stricter time limit or the number of times to change the name, everything has changed, and it allows passengers to fly with the most popular low-cost carrier.

Volaris Name Change Alert What Travelers Must Know in 2025

In Volaris Airlines, Multiple passengers face typos in their names, and even a single typo can cause a delay and denied boarding if not resolved. With new rules and policies, only eligible passengers can make changes or correct their names for travelling with Volaris Airlines. This guide will show all changes in Volaris' name change policy.

Reason Behind Name Change Policy By Volaris Airlines Revealed

Volaris has updated its name change policies to protect the airline from fraud and improve passengers' experience. This airline designs its policies according to aviation rules. The major reason behind the name change policy is to reduce booking mistakes, fraud cases, and delays of flight delays caused by boarding issues.

Also, this airline continuously partners with other carriers through codeshare, and for that, accurate names of passengers always matter for security purposes. These are all the reasons for changing the rules of name correction and changes.

New Rules Focus: Volaris Name Change Policy 2025

New rules for name changes that every traveler should be aware of:

Time Limit For Name Change

Time is crucial for Volaris, which is why they offer a quick name change after a few hours. Here are some time limits set by Volaris:

- If the flight is within the next 72 hours, then passengers can ask for a correction before 4 hours of booking.
- Passengers have 24 hours to make corrections in their names if the flight is 3 days away.
- If this time has passed, then name correction is only allowed for legal changes.

What Typos are Allowed?

In Volaris Airlines, Minor corrections or small fixes are allowed because they believe that minor errors can happen to anyone. Here is the name typo allowance:

- Up to 3 characters can be fixed in the first or last name.
- Small spelling errors are also allowed to change

Not Allowed

Some changes and corrections are restricted in Voalris:

- Full name change
- Replace the name with a different person
- Using nicknames instead of official names

Fee for Name Change

Volaris Airlines also charges some fees for name changes. Let's have a look at the costs:

Ticket type with Name Change Fees

- 1) Basic Fare - $100- $120 Approx.
- 2) Standard Fare - $75-$100 Approx.
- 3) Premium Fare - Free of charge

Note: This Fee is non-refundable, and each person has to pay for their change.

Who can change & correct the Name?

Volaris Airlines does not allow name changes for every passenger. Only certain passengers can make changes or correct name errors:

- Passenger
- Travel Agent

Name Change Guidance

By Volaris Airlines, passengers get multiple ways to change their name, such as:

- Government Issued id
- Marriage or divorce certificate
- Court approval name change form
- Passport in case of an international flight

Tips to Avoid Name Change Issues While Booking a Volaris Airlines Flight in 2025

While travelling via flight, always consider the following tips to avoid name issues because these issues can break the overall travel experience.

Use Full Name: Use only the name that is registered in the government ID proofs.

Avoid Spelling Mistakes: Double-checking the name while traveling in flight is most important because a single error in the name can cause many issues.

Don't Rush While Booking: Always book the flight by taking some time and ensuring all the details and name are accurate.

Match the Name With Travel Documents: Before and after booking, always match the name with travel documents, like a passport and a visa.

Check Confirmation Email Immediately: After booking the flight, a confirmation email is sent by the airlines to passengers. Always check the name in the email.
