Our world is beautiful because we are all in it”

New Orleans brass band-meets-Mardi Gras Indian outfit Cha Wa radiates the energy of the city's street culture. “My People,” the band's follow up to their Grammy-nominated album “Spyboy,” feels like pure joy, it also never fails to remind us how hard-won that joy was and still is: not least in the tense, funky and explosive title track, with its declaration “My people, we're still here.”
