The left side contains the following text: 'PHOENIX PUBLIC LIBRARY' in large white letters, 'Burton Barr Central Library' in green script, 'WITH AUTHOR' in white, 'Melissa Woodforlk-Whyte' in green, 'SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2025' and '11:00 AM- 2:00 PM' in white, 'LOCAL AUTHOR FAIR' in white on a green background, and the website 'www.whytewarehouseconnectionllc.com/events' in white on a black background.

Congratulations to our CEO and co-founder, Melissa Woodforlk-Whyte, Phoenix Public Library 2025 Local Author and Programmer!

Chosen from a competitive pool of over 120 submissions, Woodforlk-Whyte joins an esteemed group of writers whose work reflects innovation, impact, and community relevance. The Local Author Fair will be held on Saturday, November 8, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM at the Burton Barr Central Library in Phoenix, AZ, offering attendees a vibrant space to engage directly with authors, purchase books, and explore diverse genres and topics.

Woodforlk-Whyte's book empowers readers to take control of their financial futures with accessible strategies, practical tools, and a fresh approach to money management. It's not just a book—it's a blueprint for achieving financial freedom.

In addition to being featured at the Local Author Fair, Melissa Woodforlk-Whyte has been included in the Phoenix Public Library Programmer List, which invites selected authors to participate in various educational programs year-round—both in person and virtually. These opportunities are designed to amplify voices that spark dialogue and learning across the Phoenix community.

"It's an honor to join such an inspiring community of authors and innovators. Presenting Financial Literacy: The Basics to Financial Freedom in this space highlights how financial education can spark confidence, promote inclusion, and create meaningful change," states Melissa Woodforlk-Whyte.

Visitors to the Local Author Fair can meet Woodforlk-Whyte in person, purchase signed copies of her book, and discover how financial education can inspire lifelong wealth.
