About Promise2Live

Promise2Live is a global mental health movement and initiative under the 501c3 nonprofit Good Deed Revolution. It was founded by Brandy Vega, an Army veteran and media executive, after her teenage daughter nearly died by suicide. That terrifying moment led Brandy to make a personal promise to save lives — and that promise became a global movement.

Today Promise2Live is reaching millions through livestream events youth programs school assemblies monthly town halls and the viral Pocket Hug project.

More than 80,000 Pocket Hugs have been distributed as tangible reminders that no one is alone.
