

Cairokee and Ghostly Kisses Ignite Abadi Al-Johar Arena Stage in an Exceptional Jeddah Season Night

JEDDAH, SAUDI ARABIA, August 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In one of the most enchanting nights of Jeddah Season, alternative Arabic music met global vocal sensation on the stage of Abadi Al-Johar Arena, where the Egyptian band Cairokee and Canadian artist Ghostly Kisses delivered a massive concert organized by Benchmark, amidst a vibrant musical atmosphere and a large, enthusiastic audience.

The evening began with the soft, ethereal voice of Ghostly Kisses, who performed a selection of her songs blending gentle lyricism with dreamy electronic music. The Saudi audience responded warmly, singing along with her in a scene that reflected the deep bond between the artist and her fans in the Kingdom.

Ghostly Kisses expressed her admiration for the Saudi audience, hinting at an upcoming surprise dedicated specifically to this passionate fanbase.

As Cairokee took the stage, the energy surged and excitement filled the air. The crowd sang along with the band, engaging with every moment on stage.
