

Madison Insurance Group Celebrates Grand Opening of New Puerto Rico Office

Strategic expansion reinforces company's long-term growth and commitment to local economy

SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO, August 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On June 17, 2025, Madison Insurance Group welcomed clients, dignitaries, and community partners to celebrate the grand opening of its new office in San Juan, marking a milestone in the company's strategic expansion.

The new space, located in the iconic PepsiCo building, gives Madison room to scale operations and accommodate new team members. With a central location, larger and modernized workspaces, the office reflects Madison's continued investment in talent and client service.

The new Puerto Rico office will be home to 9 employees, representing the Madison Insurance team based on the island. The remaining 14 employees will continue to be based on mainland. As the company grows its footprint, it anticipates creating new jobs in Puerto Rico over the next 12–18 months to support expanded operations and client demand.

"This office marks a new chapter for Madison Insurance Group in Puerto Rico," said LeAnn Rivera, Chief Operating Officer, Puerto Rico. "We're proud to invest in this community, create quality jobs, and deliver excellent service to our clients across the region."

It's more than just an office—it's a launchpad for our next chapter of service, innovation, and impact."
