

waveX Secures Investment from Soneium Spark Fund

waveX, one of the leading Perpetual DEXs in the Soneium ecosystem, has secured a investment from the Soneium Spark Fund.

SEOUL, SOUTH KOREA, August 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- - Funding will accelerate waveX's global expansion and strengthen its infrastructure as a next-generation Perpetual DEX in the Soneium ecosystem.

waveX was selected as the DeFi category winner in the Soneium Spark program, securing an investment to expand globally.

waveX, one of the leading Perpetual

DEXs in the Soneium ecosystem, has secured a investment from the Soneium Spark Fund. This funding follows waveX's selection as the winner in the Defi category of the Soneium Spark program, reflecting strong recognition of the project's technological innovation and growth potential. The investment amount has not been disclosed.

With the vision of "Perpetualizing Everything Worldwide," waveX enables perpetual trading of a wide range of on-chain and off-chain assets. Users can trade not only cryptocurrencies, but also real-world data, stock market indices, social trends, and more — utilizing features such as long/short positions, price prediction (Predict), liquidity provision (Earn), and zero-slippage token swaps (Swap).

This investment will accelerate waveX's advancement in technology, liquidity expansion, and global market presence. A representative from waveX stated, "The support from the Soneium Spark Fund is a powerful driver in solidifying waveX's position as one of the leading Perpetual DEXs in the Soneium network. We will continue to build core infrastructure and contribute meaningfully to the ecosystem through ongoing innovation."
