PORTLAND, ME, UNITED STATES, August 4, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Springer's Jewelers is inviting treasure hunters and vintage jewelry lovers alike to explore its annual Estate Treasure Hunt, running Aug. 15–30 at all three store locations in Portland, Bath, and Portsmouth.

Each year, this highly anticipated event transforms every Springer's showroom into a trove of discovery, where guests can explore an expertly curated collection of one-of-a-kind estate jewelry, featuring everything from vintage Tiffany & Co. pillboxes to bold 18K gold chains and timeless heirlooms. Whether you're a seasoned collector or browsing estate pieces for the first time, this is the premier moment to uncover rare finds at exclusive prices.

As Maine's oldest jeweler, Springer's has a long-standing passion for vintage and pre-loved jewelry. Its in-house estate buying team searches year-round for meaningful, high-quality pieces to build a constantly evolving collection that's as unique as the stories behind each item.

Even the name of the PAGE Estate Collection reflects the care and reverence Springer's brings to its estate offerings. The collection is named after A.G. Page, the original owner of Springer's Bath, Maine, location, where the jeweler's passion for vintage pieces first began. More than just jewelry and watches, the PAGE Estate Collection offers a glimpse into history and a chance to uncover a hidden gem of your own, all while embracing the beauty of sustainable luxury.

"There's something incredibly special about connecting people with vintage pieces that have stories to tell," said Zoe Garcia, head estate buyer and fourth-generation co-owner. "Our estate collection is always changing, and the Treasure Hunt is a chance to explore the best of what we've uncovered."

The Estate Treasure Hunt will be held at all three Springer's Jewelers locations:

- 580 Congress St., Portland, Maine
- 76 Front St., Bath, Maine
- 100 Market St., Portsmouth, New Hampshire

Sales associates at each store are ready to assist guests in finding their next cherished piece - or an entire trove of timeless treasures.
