which to date has been streamed over 500 million times worldwide. The Tano Jones Revelry will hit the stage at 4:15 p.m. and perform just prior to The Strumbellas who will close out the event, which will be followed by a fireworks display. The Tano Jones Revelry has received Billboard Chart success with their singles "Daisy" and "Light It", and "What About Me" has the potential to reach similar heights and beyond. "What About Me" has been streamed over 7 million times worldwide. Critics have stated the meaning of the song well, "As people hold on through turbulent times, 'What About Me' triangulates the human condition of survival, unity and destiny as soaring harmonies, soulful back beats and fuzz-wah guitars crisscross to form an emotional heat which rekindles our collective connection. 'What About Me' is an anthem for anyone who has persevered through tough times and is looking for hope and inspiration to keep moving forward." In fact, The River's Program Director, Dennis Constantine said recently about "What About Me", "It's a message that needs to be heard now!" which serves as high praise from a Adult Alternative icon in the music radio business having programmed legendary stations like KFOG - San Francisco, KBCO - Denver, KINK - Portland and now WXRV - Boston. The meaning of the tune runs deep, which has led other radio programmers around the country to jump aboard, namely KCSN - Los Angeles, Music Choice - New York, Sun Radio - Austin, WPYA - Birmingham, WAPS - Akron, WOXL - Asheville, WRSI - Springfield, WNCS - Burlington, KPND - Spokane & KVYN - Santa Rosa to name just a few.
