

Heart Rocket Launches Rocket Club, a New Online Community for Men Interested in International Dating

VALENCIA, SPAIN, August 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Heart Rocket, the international matchmaking company widely known for connecting Western men with Eastern European women, is proud to announce the launch of Rocket Club — an online community designed for men who are serious about international dating and ready to take real steps toward finding lasting love.

Heart Rocket Co-founders Stryker and Luba

Rocket Club is more than just a group chat or dating advice forum. It is a structured, guided community that gives men everything they need to succeed. From expert guidance to practical tools and real matchmaking opportunities, Rocket Club combines education, accountability, and action in one powerful platform.

We want to help good men find great women, and we know exactly how to make that happen.”

Luba Seleznova

“We saw a gap in the market,” said Heart Rocket co-founder Stryker Joyce. “There are a lot of men out there who are tired of modern dating and want something real. Rocket Club gives them the structure, support, and opportunities to actually make it happen.”

What Members Get Inside Rocket Club

Rocket Club is a private space that offers members exclusive access to content, community, and real connections. Key features include:

The Essential Guide to Slavic Dating

A complete course covering mindset, communication, courtship, and how to meet a woman for the first time. It also includes an important module on identifying and avoiding dating scams so members can move forward with confidence.

Ukrainian Language Lessons

Live and recorded lessons designed to help men get comfortable communicating in Ukrainian. These practical sessions focus on real conversations that come up in dating and relationships.

Best Version Blueprint

This section helps men level up their lifestyle, health, and confidence. From appearance and grooming to mindset and personal growth, Rocket Club encourages members to become the best version of themselves.

Like Minded Community

Members join a group of supportive men who are on the same journey. Inside the community, they share wins, ask questions, offer advice, and keep each other motivated.

Blind Dates with Real Women

This is where Rocket Club goes beyond theory. Members who are active in the community and committed to personal growth may be selected for blind dates with available Ukrainian women from the Heart Rocket matchmaking network. These dates are set up by the Heart Rocket team and offer real chances to build a connection.

A Different Kind of Dating Platform

What makes Rocket Club stand out is its focus on results. It is not just about watching videos or joining a chat group. It is about doing the work, staying consistent, and building real relationships. The team behind Rocket Club treats international dating with the same care and structure as personal development or career growth.

"We believe dating should be intentional, not accidental," said co-founder Luba Selezneva.

"Rocket Club is a place where men learn, grow, and take action. We want to help good men find great women, and we know exactly how to make that happen."

With Rocket Club, Heart Rocket brings together years of matchmaking experience, cultural knowledge, and coaching insight to create something truly unique. It is the only online community of its kind offering this level of depth and support.
