bold step toward addressing this imbalance with a dedicated leadership panel:

“Women in Procurement: Celebrating Excellence & Impact.”

While industries across the board are prioritizing diversity, procurement still faces a stark leadership gap. Despite their proven impact, women remain underrepresented in strategic procurement roles. This high-impact session aims to highlight the stories, achievements, and insights of women who are not just navigating the system but actively reshaping it.

Panel Details:

Moderator:

Pia Kleiber, Founder & CEO, Verhandlungssache

Panelists:

- Judith Meumann, Head of Procurement, Selas-Linde GmbH
- Visnja Zivanovic, Head of Procurement, Nomad Foods
- Eva Tzokova, EMEA Procurement Director, JLL

What to Expect:

The 30-minute session will explore:

- The underrepresentation of women in procurement leadership
- Personal leadership journeys and defining career moments
- Challenges faced and overcome in male-dominated environments
- Building inclusive cultures and mentorship-driven ecosystems
- The power of female leadership in driving innovation, ESG, and transformation
- Practical advice for the next generation of women entering procurement

“This session is about raising visibility, celebrating excellence, and creating a path forward where more women can lead, innovate, and thrive.”

A Platform for Change

This panel is more than a conversation, it's part of a broader movement. The summit's goal is to spark dialogue, inspire leadership, and ensure procurement becomes more representative, diverse, and inclusive.
