Mark Buckley, Founder of Requordit, added: “Joining forces with Willcrest gives us the resources and strategic alignment we need to accelerate our proprietary CloudOCR and CloudPAYit software solutions. With Willcrest’s support, we will also deepen our technical consulting bench to help our clients with automation, transparency and fraud protection.”

“Based on our experience building technology for industrial companies, we see how Requordit is creating incredible ROI in the most challenging scenarios,” said Bret Forster, Partner at Willcrest Partners. “The company’s expertise in managing very large unstructured data sets and their demonstrated progress with AI based workflow automation, positions the company extremely well to lead clients into the AI era. Our shared vision is to deliver advanced, AI-driven automation solutions while maintaining Requordit's unwavering commitment to long-term customer success."

About Requordit

Requordit specializes in enterprise content services and business process automation, leveraging Hyland OnBase to help clients in construction, manufacturing, energy, and government sectors eliminate paper, reduce cycle times, and maintain rigorous compliance. With offices in the United States and Mexico, Requordit supports customers across the Americas.
