Strong leadership fuels productivity and morale, laying the foundation to scale. Chris brings the experience to accelerate our U.S. expansion, and foster a culture of customer-centricity.”

Ampcus President Salil Sankaran

growing global cybersecurity and managed services firm headquartered in Chantilly, VA, today announced the appointment of technology sales veteran Chris Brosnan as Chief Revenue Officer, U.S., effective immediately. In this role, Chris will lead all revenue-generating operations across the country, including enterprise sales, federal and commercial partnerships, go-to-market strategy, and customer growth initiatives.

Chris brings more than 20 years of executive leadership in cybersecurity and enterprise technology, with deep expertise in the U.S. regulatory landscape. He has held senior positions at leading firms including DeepSeas and Trustwave and spent over a decade at IBM. Throughout his career, he has consistently driven strong revenue performance, built high-impact sales teams, and cultivated long-term client relationships across federal, state, and commercial markets.

“We are thrilled to welcome Chris as our new Cybersecurity Sales Leader in the U.S.,” said Salil Sankaran, President of Ampcus Group. “Our commitment to protecting customers and partners is paramount as we enter our next chapter of growth. Strong leadership fuels productivity and morale, laying the foundation to scale. Chris brings the experience to not only accelerate our U.S. expansion, but to foster a culture of innovation, accountability, and customer-centricity across our sales organization.”

momentum in the market.”

“I’m excited to join Ampcus Cyber and lead our U.S. growth efforts,” said Brosnan. “This is a pivotal time for cybersecurity, and I look forward to working with our customers, partners, and teams to deliver meaningful results and help clients achieve their cybersecurity goals.”

Based in the Chantilly, VA office, Chris will work closely with Ampcus Cyber’s regional and global leaders to expand the company’s market presence and client base nationwide.
