

American Receivable Corporation Appoints Sierra Ryan as Chief Operating Officer

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American Receivable Corporation, a leading provider of invoice factoring and cash flow solutions for small to mid-sized businesses, is proud to announce the appointment of Sierra Ryan as Chief Operating Officer (COO).

With over a decade of leadership experience spanning finance, operations, marketing, and business development, Sierra brings a wealth of knowledge and a fresh perspective to American Receivable. Her dynamic background across multiple industries — including professional services, event management, and administrative operations — positions her as a powerful asset in driving operational excellence and strategic growth for the company.

“Sierra’s cross-industry expertise and her ability to streamline complex operations make her the ideal leader to help guide American Receivable through our next chapter of expansion,” said American Receivable President Brad Gurney. “Her energy, insight, and relentless commitment to client satisfaction align perfectly with our mission to support growing businesses with smart, flexible funding solutions.”

Prior to joining American Receivable, Sierra held key roles in both start-up and established environments, where she led teams, scaled internal systems, and developed strategic partnerships that improved both efficiency and profitability. She is known for her hands-on leadership style, collaborative approach, and deep understanding of what it takes to build high-performing teams.

“I’m thrilled to join American Receivable at such a pivotal time,” said Sierra Ryan. “This company has a solid reputation and an incredible team. I look forward to contributing to its continued success and making a meaningful impact on our clients and community.”

With Sierra at the helm of day-to-day operations, American Receivable is poised to further elevate its customer experience and continue delivering best-in-class funding solutions nationwide.
