This annual list highlights the top-performing and fastest-growing technology solution providers across North America, including systems integrators, managed service providers, value-added resellers, and IT consultants. Over the past two years, companies on the Fast Growth 150 list have achieved remarkable sales growth, fueled by bold strategy, innovation, and expertise in transformative technologies such as AI Automation Services, security, and cloud computing.

"Being named to CRN's Fast Growth 150 list is a reflection of our team's relentless focus on delivering business value to our customers," said Kevin Scannell, Founder and CEO of Lydonia. "As enterprises look to unlock the full potential of AI automation, Lydonia continues to lead with outcomes-first solutions, exceptional talent, and trusted partnerships that drive measurable impact."

"Each company on the Fast Growth 150 list is harnessing its extensive technology acumen and forward-looking business strategy to accelerate growth and evolve to stay ahead in the fast-moving IT arena," said Jennifer Follett, VP, U.S. Content, and Executive Editor, CRN, The Channel Company. "These notable companies show passion and commitment to finding success, supporting agility, and delivering enduring outcomes for customers. We congratulate each of them and look forward to their continued growth and evolution."

A portion of the 2025 Fast Growth 150 list will be featured in the August issue of CRN Magazine. You can also view the complete list online at www.crn.com/fastgrowth150.
