

MRO Asia-Pacific Marks 25th Anniversary in Singapore, September 16-18

Region's Largest Aviation MRO Event to Unite Global Leaders at Singapore Expo

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aviation Week Network's MRO Asia-Pacific (#MROAP) will return to the Singapore Expo and Convention Centre this September 16–18, commemorating 25 years as the region's leading gathering for the aviation maintenance, repair, and overhaul (MRO) industry.

The robust Asia-Pacific market is experiencing high growth, with more than 6,500 new aircraft expected to be added to the region's fleet of 9,600, a 3.6% Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) after retirements, according to Brian Kough, Senior Director of Forecasts and Aerospace Insights for Aviation Week. The full forecast, which will be presented at the event, will also show $417 billion in MRO demand over 10 years in the region after 80,200 major service events, a 2.3% CAGR.

This milestone year is especially meaningful as we return to Singapore—our long-standing home in the Asia-Pacific region.”

*Helen Curl, Vice President,
Events, Aviation Week
Network*

A cornerstone of Asia-Pacific's aviation calendar, MRO Asia-Pacific convenes top-tier professionals and decision-makers from around the world to examine industry challenges, share best practices, and explore innovative solutions across the entire MRO ecosystem.

The event offers attendees expert-driven conference sessions, high-impact networking, and access to a robust marketplace where airlines, OEMs, MROs, lessors, and suppliers can engage in business development and collaboration. It is expected to draw more than 6,000 attendees from over 80 countries, including 900+ buyers representing airlines and lessors.

Conference programming runs September 16–17 and features a comprehensive lineup of timely topics and strategic insights, including:

- Navigating the Unknown: Strategies and Investments for Operational Continuity
- The Potential of USM: Considerations for this Growing Strategic Option
- Case Study Spotlight: Driving Efficiency Through Digital Transformation
- AI Beyond the Buzz-Word: Delivering Real Efficiency Gains in Aviation
- Aero-Engine Focus: Strategies for Managing Cost, Turnaround, and Reliability
- Addressing the Talent Gap: Building, Retaining, and Developing Local Skills
- India's MRO Landscape: Investment Gaps and Growth Priorities
- Interiors, Modifications and Upgrades: Insight into Airlines' Evolving Fleet Strategy
