

William Clark Green Premieres 'Drinkin' and Drivin' Music Video Friday, August 8, on YouTube

A wild, 90s-inspired golf course fever dream featuring moonshine, mischief, and a viral cameo from TikTok's favorite cart girl.

FORT WORTH, TX, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Country artist William Clark Green is set to debut the official video for his single "Drinkin' and Drivin'" on Friday, August 8, at noon CT exclusively on his YouTube channel. Fans can catch the premiere (and rewatch it anytime after) on William Clark Green's YouTube channel on Friday, August 8, at noon CT.

The new video turns Green's rowdy anthem into a 90s-style fever dream - a tongue-in-cheek ode to suburban rebellion filled with golf carts, moonshine, and good company. Shot on location at Southern Oaks Golf Club in Burleson, Texas, it features a special cameo from TikTok star Cass Holland, widely known as social media's favorite "cart girl," bringing a viral edge to the storyline.

This summer, golf is everywhere - from Netflix releasing Happy Gilmore 2 and Apple's Stick to the Script creator-led tournaments pulling millions of views - and "Drinkin' and Drivin'" fits right in. It leans into the part of the game most of us live: beers in the cart, friends on the course, and a little bit of chaos. "I wanted the video to feel like a 90s country fever dream," says Green. "Golf is supposed to be serious, but we wanted to show the side people love - the fun, rowdy, don't take-it-too-seriously side."

This year also marks 10 years of Green's Ringling Road album release - with a special vinyl reissue, an anniversary tour, and more still to come.

Following the premiere, YouTube Premium subscribers will get exclusive access to an AfterParty featuring unfiltered behind-the-scenes moments, outtakes, and stories from the making of the video.

Catch the premiere - and rewatch anytime after - on William Clark Green's YouTube channel Friday, August 8 at 12 PM CT: □
