

NEMIC Partners with MEDevice Boston to Host 2025 International Pitch Reception

NEMIC proudly announces strategic partnership to co-organize and lead the 2025 NEMIC International Pitch Reception at MEDevice Boston in September

BOSTON, MA, UNITED STATES, August 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- First of its kind for MEDevice Boston, the New England Medical Innovation Center (NEMIC) proudly presents this all-new softball-style pitch presentation, where you'll hear 15+ of the industry's most innovative companies showcasing their latest solutions aimed at solving pressing issues in Life Science. This curated selection comprises both domestic and international companies conducting 3 minute pitches, with dynamic networking immediately to follow offering a chance to connect directly with founders, industry veterans, investors, and more.

NEMIC is thrilled to bring our expertise in early-stage innovation and startup acceleration to the heart of Boston's medical device community”

Aidan Petrie, NEMIC Co-Founder + Managing Partner

“This partnership with MEDevice Boston strengthens our shared mission to support the next generation of medtech founders and connect them directly with the people who can help bring their innovations to market,” said Aidan Petrie, Co-Founder and Managing Partner of NEMIC.

As the region's premier platform for medical device professionals, MEDevice Boston draws thousands of stakeholders each year. This year's International Pitch Reception will take place at the Boston Convention &

Exhibition Center, and will highlight solutions ranging from surgical devices and diagnostics to digital health and wearable technologies.

For attendees, the session promises high energy, emerging ideas, and an unparalleled opportunity to discover the region's most promising healthtech startups in a single, high-impact
