

Taxes for Expats Introduces Pre-Filled Tax Questionnaire, Accelerating US Expat Filing Worldwide

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, August 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Taxes for Expats, a New York-based provider of US tax-preparation services for Americans living abroad, announced the launch of a Pre-Filled Tax Questionnaire (TQ) that leverages smart automation to simplify and expedite the annual filing process.

The new feature allows clients to upload a prior-year IRS Form 1040; the platform then auto-populates recurring data fields, leaving only current-year changes for review. Internal testing shows a reduction in manual entry of up to half, according to the company.

Built for complex expatriate needs

The firm's 80-plus credentialed professionals – CPAs, Enrolled Agents, and attorneys – handle matters ranging from FBAR and FATCA reporting to streamlined filing for late filers. Each return undergoes a supervisor review before submission, a process that the company states contributes to a 97 percent on-time filing rate.

"The company is responsive, answers all tax questions, and makes the whole process a breeze," said Mujtaba, a US taxpayer residing in Great Britain. "The Tax Questionnaire format was beneficial. I suggested a tip to be added, and the next day it was."
