American Artist Gino McKoy's "Everything to Me" Music Video Premieres - Blends Sci-Fi Romance with Billboard Chart Success

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, August 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Indie music and film sensation Gino McKoy is captivating audiences with the release of his new music video, "Everything to Me", the title track from his critically acclaimed sci-fi feature film 'Lumina'. "Everything to Me" is a cinematic masterpiece that intertwines an emotional pop ballad with scenes from 'Lumina', a thrilling sci-fi love-story, directed and produced by McKoy himself under his production banner, Goldove Entertainment LLC.

The track, which debuted at #30 on the Billboard charts and #20 on Mediabase charts, marks a historic achievement for McKoy as the only independent artist currently charting on Billboard while simultaneously releasing a Hollywood feature film. Co-composed by Gino McKoy and Hudson McKoy, "Everything to Me" is a soulful anthem produced by industry legends David Kershenbaum and Greg Phillinganes, with mixing by 15-time Grammy-winning engineer Mick Guzauski.

The music video, shot in Los Angeles, CA, features breathtaking cinematography by Chris Moseley and choreography directed by McKoy. It tells a gripping love story tied to 'Lumina', where the lead character is mysteriously abducted by extraterrestrial forces, leaving viewers on the edge of their seats. Starring Taya Kenny and Darrius Marcellin, the video seamlessly blends emotive storytelling with sensual visuals, perfectly echoing the song's lyricism and capturing the universal theme of love against all odds, making it a fan favorite on both Spotify and YouTube Music.

“Everything to Me’ is more than a song—it’s a narrative that bridges music and cinema,” says McKoy. “I wanted to create a visual and emotional experience that resonates with fans of both pop music and sci-fi storytelling.”
