This renovation was truly a labor of love, and it was wonderful to share the finished product with everyone. It's incredibly rewarding to see the space come to life for our clients.”

Niko Papaheraklis, Business Manager, FineCraft Design & Build

Attendees had the opportunity to tour the home and experience firsthand the seamless integration of old-world charm with today's luxury living. The home features custom millwork, a light-filled open floor plan, and spaces designed for modern functionality. Key highlights included a showpiece kitchen, a moody media room, whimsical wallpapered bedrooms, and a newly redesigned screened porch.

“We were thrilled to see so many people come out to celebrate this project with us,” said Niko Papaheraklis, Business Manager at FineCraft Design & Build. “This renovation was truly a labor of love, and it was wonderful to share the finished product with everyone. It's incredibly rewarding to see the space come to life for our clients."

Guests enjoyed food, drinks, and music while exploring the home and meeting the talented team behind the renovation. The event provided an opportunity to discuss the vision that drove the design and execution of the project. This collaboration with Ballard + Mensua Architects has resulted in a timeless space that honors the historic integrity of the home while enhancing it with the comforts of modern living.

"We are grateful for everyone who joined us in celebrating this beautiful project," added Papaheraklis. "The response from the community and industry professionals alike was overwhelming, and we're excited to continue our tradition of creating exceptional living spaces."
