With over $500 million in value created for his clients, David Hermann is set to excite the Colorado startup scene, sharing real-world strategies that have helped leaders transform great ideas into thriving, enduring companies. This is your invitation to rethink how you build, scale, and...when the time is right...step away on your own terms.

Session One (click link to register): Are You Accidentally Sabotaging Your Exit?
September 17, 2025 at 2:00pm MDT.

Could your current habits be quietly erasing future opportunities? David's first session will reveal how "exit readiness" is really about building a business that stands out to buyers—even if you aren't ready to sell. Leave with a winning playbook that boosts your choices, maximizes value, and turns every decision into momentum for the future.

Session Two (click link to register): Did You Build a Business or a Prison? Breaking Free from the Founder Burnout Trap

September 17, 2025 at 3:00pm MDT.

Did you create your dream? Or a never-ending grind? With 72% of founders reporting burnout,

David will help you spot the warning signs and reclaim control. Discover simple, effective tactics to build a company that runs without you, so your business supports your life—not the other way around.

These high-energy sessions feature vivid stories, hands-on case studies, and insights you can put to work immediately, whether you're sketching your first idea or scaling up fast.

Ready to build a business with staying power and freedom? Mark September 17 on your calendar for Colorado Startup Week 2025 and get ready for David Hermann's fresh take on success and sustainability.
