The international award-winning film, Young & Cursed, traps five young strangers in a remote cabin under the control of a young woman possessed by a biblical demon. With Young & Cursed, I aimed to tap into primal fear - an ancient evil exploiting human fragility and forcing us to face who we are without free will.”
Andrew Chiaramonte, Director

Breaking from tradition, the film turns the classic demon possession story inward, setting up a relentless tug-of-war between good and evil blending supernatural terror with raw human vulnerability.
